

“Yellow Eyes”

(Julience)

She's got yellow hair
she's got yellow eyes
There's no doubt about it
I like the way she smiles
Right now
I'm working nine to five to keep the living alive She wipes the dirt off my shoulders but still, she keeps her hands clean Running in the night, at high speed
Fire in the skies, light up her yellow eyes
I've got to take my time and take what's mine Roll down the highway to where the air is fine
Running in the night, at high speed
Fire in the skies, light up her yellow eyes!
Well, she takes my hand and drives me away,
and the glass it fell on the floor
Yeah, she drowns me in a holy water's flow It's plain to see what she's doing to me

She wipes the dirt of my shoulders her hands are dirty but my mind is clean now And I can see
Running in the night, at high speed
Living in a dream, I'm wide awake
She bend down over me, to put me down
Fire in the skies, light up her yellow eyes
Burn!
